PARTICIPANTS INTRODUCTION

Monika Spruch's passion for racing cars came from her father who put her behind the wheel when she was only 6 years old. In her teenage years she focused on beauty pageants and fashion shows and she came to US by herself to live The American Dream.

Monika has appeared in numerous films, commercials and TV shows, including "Star Trek Enterprise", "The Green Hornet", "Red Riding Hood", "Fright Night", "Confessions of a Dangerous Mind", "Will & Grace", "Dexter", "CSI: Miami", "Monk", "Miss Match", "Heart of Stone" and other productions she currently works on.

After graduating from Skip Barber Racing School in Laguna Seca she was approached by DCM (Drivers Career Management) in London to participate as an amateur in Le Mans 24 as the first Polish woman in this race history.
